SOME EXTRA CHOICE DAHLIAS

HARRISON'S HERBERT HOOVER — D.
(1928). This is the finest Exhibition Dahlia we have ever seen. A brilliant yellowish orange of immense size. No center visible. Stands up splendidly on the most gigantic stems imaginable. One of the very best for cut flowers, lasting well for five days. This dahlia is a great sun-lover, being at its best in July and August, though it is a wonder in the fall also. If you want to win prizes—grow this one. ....$10 each.

CANBY QUEEN—(Mrs. M. G. Ellis). Of the peony type, but very double and seldom shows the center. Very large, often 11 inches across and stands up well on strong stems. Very delicate lavender pink, with fine yellow line through each petal.

Took first prize for best Peony Dahlia at the big Portland Dahlia Show this fall and has taken several other prizes....$4.00

ROSE GLOW—D. (Mrs. M. G. Ellis). Mammoth clear bright rose exhibition variety, strong growing, very tall, and is not afraid to look the world in the face. Must be seen to be appreciated. ....$5.00

EASTERN STAR—D. (Maytrott). A wonderful yellow dahlia priced a few seasons ago at $10. A great prize winner. ....$2.50

CREOLE—D. (Crites). [Formerly Named Chanticleer]. Very striking, each petal being bright red and white. People see it a long way off. "What is that one?" is almost universally asked upon seeing it. A splendid garden variety. If seed-budded it grows to an immense size....$3.50
